

Quantum Healing Revolution – Module 5 – Addiction

Replay Link follows description (See Below)

What do we do when someone is in the chains of addiction? There's a very unusual methodology that's based in anthropological knowledge that I'll teach you here. We can reclaim our experiences without guilt, and reshape our relationship to substances and the Earth. If you find you or your loved ones or clients suffer with addiction – now is the time for a radically different approach that will shift us into a more natural way of being with the Earth and her Communion.

With Love,

Elizabeth WYSEN
